

Reflection for March 2026 with Divine Mother

I am the Divine Mother and I come forth to speak with you. For, there resides upon earth now grave suffering and hopelessness. There also resides joy, happiness and gratitude. Yet what is the bridge between the two? How can your joy uplift those who are suffering or encourage those who are downtrodden? I would like to speak about that with you, for those who receive these words are experiencing both. You might believe that you are uplifted and perhaps you are. Yet know this to be true. When there is grave suffering or feeling downtrodden, then those frequencies reside. And you are compassionate and loving beings. And this means that you care about those ones and further, within your caring, you take to yourselves, sometimes, the heaviness. I, your Divine Mother, care about you and your daring to be the Light Bearers upon earth. Then I speak with you, the Light Bearers.

Long ago you came to earth and planted within earth those frequencies of joy and delight and love. You were not in physical form yet, but you felt that those frequencies would benefit any who came to earth and would also hold the integrity of earth. Then, this you did. And now you are here, incarnate, and you are fulfilling the same purpose, yet you are within the physical, which presents its own challenges and more so, asks more of you in order to fulfill this purpose of long ago.

The earth and her inhabitants need your love and uplifting light, your expanded frequencies that invite all to dare to let go of the old ways and to enter into the new ways, ways that bring all beings to what was always meant for them and that is, peace and love and joy and ease of living. Now you are aware that there are those who refuse all of that to the many. Do not enter your thinking into that manner. It hurts your heart. It diminishes your joy and happiness. There are many who are here to relieve those ones who refuse the many, but you are here for a different reason. You are here to place your feet upon the earth and to dance, to dare to be joyful in the face of the horrors that are occurring.

I, your Divine Mother send forth deep and expanding frequencies of love to you, and to all beings. Yet I say to you especially because you are at the very edge of that which is meant for you. The very edge of those frequencies that bring to you a new manner of being. Fear not for those who do not know of this new manner of being. They are being taken care of. I, the Divine Mother, do not abandon any of my children or any beings. In truth, I cannot simply because I am that which I am.

So then, the edge that I speak of is the moment when you dare to let go of the manner of living that leans toward survival's grasp, the manner of living that calls you to feel that life is a drudgery and you are trying very hard to not enter into it. And I say that you have been doing this for a very long time. And now, even in this moment, you are being asked to let go of the interpretation of your journey, to breathe deeply of My Love and further, to breathe deeply of Truth.

For it is Truth that sets you free. It is not the Truth that is written by those who wish you to be as they are, to believe as they do. Truth simply is. It is a frequency, my dear ones, a frequency that holds you within it, if you choose. Now if you choose to reside within the frequencies of Truth, then you are letting go of the need to move pieces around in your lively journey so that the journey can be better or be the way you believe it must be or should be. This is part of the attraction of control, yet control, my dear ones, is not residing in Truth. It is actually residing in the illusion of separation from the whole... which of course is the illusion and distortion.

Truth invites you to awaken, to shake your thinking and allow the beliefs to fall away... so that you can reside in that Light of lights that you came here with, that you planted within earth long ago, and that you are resting within, hoping that your radiating of this Light will uplift humanity. And such radiating is honorable. Yet I, your Divine Mother am focusing in this moment upon you and I wish you to cease such efforting. Why? When you are residing in the Truth of One, so to speak, then you need not effort to radiate such Light and Love forward. You are residing within it and because you are, then all beings are. It cannot be any other way. You see? All beings are One Being.

Then when you are daring to let go and to reside in that Truth, in that Light, in that Love, then such residing is. It is not an action. It is in that which forms the very essence of that which you are. This is the stepping forth from the edge and into the awakening frequencies that deliver to you a new manner of being. You have tasted, perhaps, some of this new manner, and you have felt the uplift. That uplift is here now. For you. I wish you to step within it and allow, allow all else to be taken care of.

There are many many beings from other locations in the Universe who are coming forth now to assist in everything, to assist those who are suffering, yes, but also to assist you, to assist you to dare to allow, to dare to let go of the seeming control that you have been struggling with, hoping that you can uplift the entirety of humanity. Hear my words. You have benefited many. You have fulfilled that purpose. Now it is for you to be fulfilled.

Know this to be true. When you allow yourself to be fulfilled, then that fulfillment resides... and all beings have that uplifting of their fulfillment however large or small it might be. It is that same taste that you had when you decided to awaken more and more and you felt the joy of Truth fill you. You joined with others experiencing the same and together you radiated forth that joy, that peace, that relief. This same taste then flows forth for the many, especially from that which you are, that which you are as the many form as the One Being. This is the major awakening, my dear ones and it is at hand.

Fear not. Many wish you to fear so that you will forget that Truth is. Fear is unworthy of your beauty, of that which you are. Fear deserves nothing from you. In a manner of speaking, you are through with it. Now you can reside in that which is beyond the edge of this grand fulfillment of being. None are left behind, but know this to be true also. You are beyond those thinkings, you are beyond those struggles to convince the many to be happy, to trust, to be relieved. You have fed the many with the manna of your soul. Now your soul, your spirit will be nourished beyond your imaginings. I, your Divine Mother, am spooning that nourishment into your being, into your soul, into your adventurous spirit.

Oh know this to be true, your adventures are just beginning. And the many are with you, the many who are of Light, of Truth, of Joy, of Compassion, of Dancing. The many who are of you and you of them. These adventures are meant for you, for all. You cannot be diminished. You are Truth itself. Then flow forth! I am with you always.

Then these are the words that I breathe forth for you.

So be it.
